

Corporate Team Building

Enterprize is the perfect option to get your team working together, to sail this ship everybody on board must communicate and co-ordinate activities.

An efficient and effective workplace is integral to any successful organisation. Enterprize specialises in providing a range of corporate training and incentive reward programs to help build a more productive, cohesive and competitive workforce for your organisation. These programs have been specifically designed to address skills and issues within organisations such as delegation, team building and management.

Enterprize achieves great success in these training programs by:

- • Training groups of individuals away from the habits and distractions of their workplace.
- • Creating real and achievable individual and group challenges.
- • Offering a unique and memorable experience to participants.
- • Challenging the every day assumptions of twentieth century automated lifestyles.
- • Placing the participants in an isolated environment that has no established hierarchy, where they can meet a challenge together, actually listen to each others ideas, talk together as equals and depart as a team.

Enterprize provides:

- • The program and venue for your organisation or your own trainer.
- • The opportunity for your group to work as a team to sail Enterprize unassisted.
